

Sanctions on Iraq

background, consequences and strategies

Image: New
Internationalist
Magazine September
1999 issue on Iraq.

Conference: 13-14 November, 1999
Cambridge

Confirmed speakers include: Ivor Lucas, former head of Middle East Dept., Foreign and Commonwealth Office; Anthonius de Vries, economic and financial sanctions co-ordinator, European Commission; Dr Richard Garfield, epidemiologist specialising in the effects of sanctions on civilian populations, Columbia University; Rita Bhatia, Save the Children and Chris Doyle, Council for the Advancement of Arab/ British Understanding (CAABU).

Full Details from: 'CASI Conference', c/o Seb Wills, Clare College, Cambridge CB2 1TL, UK
Phone: 01223 363882 Fax: 0870 0881933
Email: soc-casi@lists.cam.ac.uk Website: <http://welcome.to/casi>

Hosted by Campaign Against Sanctions on Iraq (CASI), a registered society at the University of Cambridge. The society has an exclusively humanitarian focus, does not support the Iraqi regime and is not opposed to military sanctions on Iraq. The views of the speakers are not necessarily the views of CASI and vice versa.