Details of underpinning research Write in an accessible style; assessors will not necessarily be from your specific research field. Maximum 200 words What research underpinned the impact/engagement? Was there a particular problem the research sought to address? Clarify the nature of the research and describe the methodologies used and the key findings. Describe more than just the publications and goals. (Please specify the date/year of underpinning research)

Research Publications List up to five research publications associated with the underpinning research.

Details of the engagement methods used and the resulting impact

Maximum 500 words

Write in an accessible style; assessors will not necessarily be from your specific research field. Please explain how you have designed and carried out or supported activities to engage your key audiences, what has been achieved to date and what impact has occurred and/or can reasonably be anticipated. Briefly explain the stakeholders/partners selected, how they contributed to the engagement activities and the impacts the activities had on them. Please demonstrate how you have taken a reflective/evaluative approach to your work and how learning has been shared more widely.(Please specify the date/year of impact)

Stakeholder/ Partner Testimonial Maximum 200 words If you worked closely with a research or impact delivery partner or stakeholder group please include testimonial evidence/feedback here. Alternatively, nominees are permitted to attach a one page letter of support from their partner organisation to the nomination form. Please include contact information for the external organisation/group.

Is there anything else you would like to add in support of your nomination/application?

We will be using these awards to promote excellence in public engagement and impact at the University of Cambridge through the production of case studies for distribution internally and externally through digital channels. If you would like more information about this or feel it would be inappropriate to feature your research in this way, please let us know.

Are a head shot of the nominee/applicant and project pictures submitted with application?

(Pictures will be featured during the award ceremony as well as in the promotion of the event)
