

Risk Assessment in Collections Care

Date: Thursday May 21st 2015

Venue: Kelvingrove Art Gallery and Museum, Glasgow

Seminar leaders:

- Agnes Brokerhof, Cultural Heritage Agency of the Netherlands (RCE)
- Dr Anna Bülow, The British Museum
- Andor Vince, The Fitzwilliam Museum, University of Cambridge

Morning

9:30 – 10:00 Registration with tea and coffee

10:00 – 10:10 Introduction by Graeme Scott and David Thomson

10:10 – 10:50 The Risk Management Process, Lecture by Agnes Brokerhof

The application of risk management in the cultural heritage field and how heritage organisations can use this tool to prioritise their limited resources and reduce risks that have the greatest impact on collections preservation.

Practical Exercises

11:00 – 11:30 Establishing the context

11:30 – 12:00 Risk identification

12:00 – 12:30 Value exercise

12:30 – 13:00 Risk analysis

13:00 – 14:00 Lunch (not provided)

Afternoon

14:00 – 14:40 Risk Management in Complex Institutions, Lecture by Anna Bülow

The application of risk management in complex circumstances, and how to gain buy-in.

14:40 – 15:30 Evaluation and risk treatment

15:30 – 15:45 Tea

15:45 – 16:45 Summary and discussion

16:45 – 17:00 Closing

The British
Museum

